But it is the topic that author Emily Giffin addresses in "Baby Proof". Knowing that the story would focus on this issue, I worried it would end up being black and white with a watered down and easily digestible ending but Emily Giffin kept to her usual high standard as I read my way through a messy, emotional, complicated and realistic story.

Emily Giffin's books are a guilty pleasure, at least for me. Baby Proof falls in line with her other books I've read (Something Borrowed, Something Blue, and Love the One You're With); they are all highly entertaining and hard to put down. Perfect for a ladies book club or fun beach read, Baby Proof is the ultimate "chick lit".
