Blackmail, Sex And Lies details every aspect of their relationship though the letters they exchanged over the course of their two relationship. What I found enjoyable was the way author gives the reader all the known facts about the case allowing for him or her to make up their minds up about the guilt and innocence of Madeleine Smith.

'Sextortion': Online blackmail of men

Blackmail, Sex and Lies is a Victorian true crime story. In the 1850s Madeleine Smith, upper-middle class resident of Glasgow was accused of poisoning her lover Emile L'Angelier to get rid of him so she can marry someone more suitable - richer - of her class. Emile was a working class man and the fact that a young lady of a higher class conducted a secret love affair with someone below her ...

BLACKMAIL, SEX AND LIES. Blackmail, Sex and Lies is a story of deception, scandal, and fractured traditional Victorian social values. It is the tale of a naïve, young woman caught up in a whirlwind romance with a much older man. However, both have personality flaws that result in poor choices, and ultimately lead to a tragic end.

My second book, Blackmail, Sex and Lies, covers the life and times of the infamous socialite Madeleine Smith, accused of poisoning her working-class lover, Pierre Emile L'Angelier with arsenic. The book highlights the accessibility of this poison and how it was a common ingredient in many household products; this casts doubt on her guilt, especially as L'Angelier took arsenic as a health ...
