In Geek Love, the gaze on the female body can be easily recognized. The scene in The Glass House Club where Miranda works as a stripper is the most notable place for such a gaze: "A very thin girl, her skin tight to her bones with as little muscle intruding as I've ever seen on someone who could still sit up...Then she ground her hips around until she faced us and undid the bead that held her G-string in place" (Dunn 16).
