"Canadian writer Carrie Snyder may not be well-known in the States, but Girl Runner, Snyder's third book, will undoubtedly put Snyder in the front of the "writers to watch" pack. Snyder tunes Aganetha's voice so beautifully at each stage of her life that the comparisons to Elizabeth Strout's unforgettable Olive Kitteridge are inevitable.

Girl Runner Quotes. What comes harder is finding ourselves the sum of our emotions, which flicker, altered by experience, by the things we cannot bear to tell ourselves, by the trouble we accrue, the flattering and ramping down as we learn how not to be hurt. As we learn protection and the easiest means of protection." — Carrie Snyder , Girl Runner.
