The forms him, her and them are used when a pronoun is the object of a sentence. The forms his, her, hers, their and theirs are possessive in nature. Possessives are of two kinds: possessive pronouns and possessive adjectives. Possessive adjectives go before nouns.

Use of the words he/she, him/her and his/hers etc.

(Option 3) Use "his or her" or "his/her." Each team leader is responsible for his or her team. He or she must report to the race marshal by 9 o'clock. (This is acceptable, and it can be a good option if you only use it once in your document. However, if you have several sentences using this option, it looks clumsy.)
