Joe Cahill: A Life in the IRA by Brendan Anderson, Joe ...

Ned Maguire. Ned Maguire was an Irish Republican Army volunteer from Belfast, perhaps best known for his part in the Crumlin Road Gaol breakout of 1943. Having been sentenced to six years imprisonment, Maguire was with the other IRA prisoners in 'A' Wing, when it was noticed that there was an unused trapdoor in the roof of a toilet block.

Joe Cahill: A Life in the IRA by Brendan Anderson

Born in Belfast in 1920, Joe Cahill has been an IRA man motivated by this ambition all his life. IRA activists rarely speak about their lives or their organisation, but here Cahill gives his full and frank story, his viewpoint, his experiences -- from Northern Irish prison cells of the 1940s, on a death sentence, to Washington when the Good Friday Agreement was being negotiated.
