The rocky, 3,000-mile-long coast of Maine has long been a bane to ships, so it's no surprise that the state has more coastal lighthouses than any other. This calendar beautifully displays twelve of the more than sixty beacons that dot the coast. A short history of each lighthouse, holidays, moon phases, and tide tables are also included.

So many of Maine's lighthouses are trumpets; Lubec's instantly recognizable West Quoddy Head Light is a piccolo. The candy-striped tower marks the easternmost point on the U.S. mainland, and it's the third to stand in this spot. The first two, built in 1808 and 1831, were white and tough to see in the famously thick Down East fog.
