The wide left section for text and notes is complemented by the right column for action items. I like the top section for goals. OTOH, if you just want to write, you can write straight across the page like a regular lined notebook. I use it for meetings and also for projects where I want a goal and topic for each page.

1) Every sheet (front and back) appears to be set up for one meeting. The front side has a header section, date line, notes and action section. the back just has a notes and action section. My notes from meetings are not that long, so I find that this is a less-than-ideal set up for me 2) The lines are 1.5 or 2x spaced.
