Sir Ken Robinson, Ph.D., Out of Our Minds: Learning to be Creative

There are three themes running throughout Ken Robinson's "Out of Our Minds": 1. We are living in revolutionary times. 2. To survive and flourish in these times of change we must think differently about our abilities and make best use of them. 3. We need to operate our organizations in radically different ways than we are presently. The key to addressing these themes, according to Robinson, is creativity.
