To understand Pompeii you need a guide to take you round and explain what you are seeing. I was pleasantly surprised to see how much had been unearthed, the streets, baths, arches, pottery and even bodies. Our tour guide was great and took her time in explaining everything and giving us time to look. She also explained the significance of Mount Vesuvius.

The ruins of Pompeii cover 44 square hectares, and it would take at least two full days to tour the entire park. Realistically, you can see most of the highlights in 4 hours and longer visits can be very tiring, especially on a hot day. You can also spend a full day exploring the park with a lunch break at one of the picnic areas in the park.
