Sadly, however, a lot of believers haven't been doing that. They've just ridden along passively in the passenger seat of life, unhappy about what's happening to them, and yet not using the power of their words to change it. "Well," someone might say, "I've never been a fan of making faith confessions.

They pretended, perhaps they even believed, that they had seized power unwillingly and for a limited time, and that just around the corner there lay a paradise where human beings would be free and equal. We are not like that. We know that no one ever seizes power with the intention of relinquishing it. Power is not a means; it is an end.
