He was kind of a silent boy that would prefer be home with his dogs and cats than out to a party. We had quite intense conversations within 2 days full and i felt like I'm into him already. We kind of felt sleep together on Skype, he watch me praying, played guitar, singing, cooking, eating, like literally doing almost everything with Skype ...

He's a nobody. At least thats how everybody, including Evangeline Stone, sees it. It takes one unfortunate interaction for Eva to see the talented young man hiding behind the silent boy, with dreams he could chase and doubts that keep holding him back. Eva, on the other hand, isn't particularly good at anything. At least that's what she thinks.
