N. Gregory Mankiw (writer of one of the best-selling economics textbooks) has recently written "A Skeptic's Guide to Modern Monetary Theory" (MMT). He discussed several assertions made in the textbook Macroeconomics, by William Mitchell, L. Randall Wray, and Martin Watts (link to article with my initial comments on that text). His conclusion was "In the end, my study of MMT led me to find some ...

Skeptics, on the other hand, may fall into the trap of dismissing the claims of UFO believers, for example, by stating that people who believe in UFO's are crazy or stupid. A common form of this fallacy is also frequently present in the arguments of conspiracy theorists (who also rely heavily on ad-hoc reasoning).
