Doctor Aphra Vol

This opening volume is a solid addition to the Star Wars canon and the idea of using a rogue archeologist allows for some interesting aspects of the Star Wars universe to be explored. After being blackmailed by her father, Aphra is forced to help him uncover the secrets of a lost Jedi sect purported to be seeking the secrets to immortality.

Kieron Gillen and Kev
Walke's "Doctor Aphra" ranks, for my money, as one of this year's biggest surprises: a series
based entirely around
a secondary character
from Gillen's prior
"Darth Vader" ongoing
that somehow also managed to feel fresh,
distinct, and genuinely exciting.

Aphra #3 below!

Doctor Aphra is defined by her betrayals. The breakout Star Wars character is a scoundrel in the vein of Han Solo, but when Harrison Ford's bounty hunter gives in to generosity and rescues Luke in a moment of crisis, Doctor Chelli Lona Aphra would be much more likely to give Luke up to save what really matters to her.
