The Forest of Hands and Teeth Series by Carrie Ryan

Among them is the accusation that "Thou hast been to me like the tree that said to its woodcutters, "If something of me were not in your hands, ye had not fallen upon me". [1] This refers to the fact that the axes of the woodmen have wooden shafts and the trees have therefore contributed to their own doom.

The Forest of Hands and Teeth—Film Adaptation Trailer

The Forest of Hands and Teeth, which takes place generations after the apocalypse, is really about a girl struggling with growing up, desire, and a controlling society set against the backdrop of a world with zombies (called "Unconsecrated") constantly pushing against the fences. The characters have already come to terms with the Return (the zombie apocalypse) and know nothing else: this is their world and they've accepted it.
