Sicilian Defence, Smith-Morra Gambit - Wikipedia

Whether he has succeeded in proving the gambit fully viable is for time to tell, but while his tone is often enthusiastic his evaluations seem objective: I found plenty of lines where the assessment was equality. (Of course, for gambit-haters that might be taken as a lack of objectivity!)

The Modern Morra Gambit: A Dynamic Weapon Against the ...

The Smith-Morra Gambit is a popular, aggressive response to the Sicilian. The game begins with the following moves: 1. e4 c5 2. d4 cxd4 3. c3 Black has the option to win a pawn by accepting the gambit, but white will have a space advantage and a slight lead in development.

The Modern Morra Gambit, Second Edition: A Dynamic Weapon ...

Though it also offers a repertoire, this second edition of IM Hannes Langrock's ground breaking The Modern Morra Gambit is not so narrow as many repertoire books and its main recommendations are very well considered. Admittedly, it does not offer the general coverage of some earlier works, but with analysis often delving deeply into critical lines (especially those Nd5 Knight sacs) there just ...

Smith Morra Gambit - The Chess Website

A Bust to the Smith-Morra Gambit by Elijah Logozar I used to think that the Smith-Morra gambit was a dangerous attacking weapon. Armed with IM Marc Esserman's book, I was initially persuaded that this gambit was sound or close to it. I managed to utilize the Morra with success both over the board and online.

But if you want to know about the theory and/or get an extensive analysis of the possibilities for both sides, there are a number of good books on the opening and I can especially recommend Marc Esserman's Mayhem in the Morra and/or Hannes Langrock's The Modern Morra Gambit (in the latter case, get the second edition rather than the first, as it contains some important updates).

The Kenilworthian: Smith-Morra Gambit Update

The pawn sacrifice 1.e4 c5 2.d4 cxd4 3.c3 dxc3 4.Nxc3 against the Sicilian Defense is known as the Morra Gambit after the Frenchman who advocated it several decades ago, or (usually in the U.S.) as the Smith-Morra Gambit, referring to the late Ken Smith, a Senior Master who was a staunch advocate of the gambit, but scored 0-3 with it at the San Antonio 1972 international chess tournament.
