The Saboteur in my opinion is a little underrated and unjustly compared to GTA. While there is an open world feel to it most of what you do is connected in the grand scheme of things and makes almost every event or mission more coherent. Some people might complain about some missions being repetitive but honestly how can you get tired of placing bombs at certain targets where unsuspecting Nazi's are standing guard and you steadily walk away to see the target and those Nazi's get blown up. The ...
